FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DEAN MEAD ATTORNEYS PRESENTED AT FICPA MEETING IN PALM CITY

Fort Pierce - Bradley R. Gould and Robert J. Naberhaus III were the featured speakers at the Sailfish Chapter of the Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants on Wednesday May 18, 2011 in Palm City, Florida. Gould and Naberhaus presented on Federal Transfer Tax Developments and Asset Protection Planning, highlighting topics including the temporary tax relief, unemployment insurance reauthorization, and Job Creation Act of 2010.

Gould is a shareholder in Dean Mead's Fort Pierce office. He practices in the area of federal income, estate, and gift tax law and family business succession planning. He represents businesses and business owners in all types of business and tax matters, including choice of entity, mergers and acquisitions, reorganizations, and other general business matters. Gould represents individuals, businesses and fiduciaries before the Internal Revenue Service. He also counsels clients on estate and wealth preservation planning matters. In addition to being an attorney, he is also a Certified Public Accountant.

Naberhaus is Of Counsel in Dean Mead's Viera office and practices in trust and estate planning and administration. He is board certified in wills, trusts and estates law. He has extensive trust, estate planning and administration experience working with high net worth individuals. He also concentrates his practice in the areas of fiduciary representation, business succession planning, generational planning, charitable planning, guardianship and probate litigation.
