

Dean, Mead, Egerton, Bloodworth, Capouano & Bozarth, P.A. is a business law firm with headquarters in downtown Orlando and a statewide footprint. The firm opened its doors 35 years ago in Central Florida. It has grown both strategically and steadily with the addition of offices in Fort Pierce, Viera, Gainesville and Tallahassee. Today, there are nearly 50 lawyers who assist companies, entrepreneurs and family-held businesses to grow and diversify.

Dean Mead's attorneys advise clients in the key industries driving Florida's economy such as agriculture, healthcare, hospitality, banking, utilities, real estate and land development, construction, manufacturing and technology. The firm provides a broad range of services including: tax planning, business formation, contract negotiations, mergers and acquisitions, estate and succession planning, real estate acquisition, leasing, commercial lending, land use and environmental, employee benefits, ESOPs, general commercial litigation, bankruptcy and creditors' rights, trademarks and copyrights, intellectual property law, professional licensing, employment, white collar litigation and corporate compliance, eminent domain, and water law.

In addition, Dean Mead enhances the value to its clients across the state through a dedicated team of attorneys on the ground in Tallahassee. They have extensive experience shaping solutions to complex issues involving government regulation, administrative law, state and local taxation, public policy, litigation, compliance and permitting.

GIVING BACK IS A CORE VALUE

For the attorneys and staff, philanthropy and pro bono are more than just catch phrases; they're an integral part of the business plan. Every member of the firm subscribes to the philosophy that service to the community is an essential part of service to the client. They're encouraged to invest both time and money in giving back.

Several attorneys volunteer through leadership positions on local and regional boards including: Orange County Bar Association Foundation, Central Florida Partnership, Eatonville Boys & Girls Club, YMCA of Central Florida, Florida Citrus Sports, CREW, Orlando Ballet, The First Tee of Central Florida, Kiwanis Club, Central Florida Gator Club, Downtown Orlando Partnership, Community Foundation, Jewish Community Center, Orange County Legal Aid Society, The Florida Bar, Central Florida Estate Planning Council, Rotary Club and the University of Florida Law Center Association, Inc.
